

PMA Summer Reading Book Clubs for Grades 4 through 8! 2008

Students must read from three to six additional books beyond their incoming grade's required summer reading to qualify for membership in one of three new PMA book clubs... the Blue & Gold Club, the Maroon & Gray Club, and the Green & White Club. Students must also complete a report on each book they will read.

Students will enjoy special privileges available to MEMBERS ONLY!

THE BLUE & GOLD READING CLUB

To become a member of the Blue & Gold Club, a student must read six (6) additional books from their grade's required summer reading list, except for students in Grade 4, who must read four (4) additional books. When the grade lists do not provide enough books to complete the six books, students in those grades may select other age/grade appropriate books of their choice.

Membership privileges include:

- A certificate of participation as a Blue & Gold Club member in the summer reading program.
- Their name featured on a special Blue & Gold Club membership roster in the library.
- A free notebook, pencil, and eraser from the PMA school store.
- A coupon for one (1) dress down day (subject to restrictions).
- One free home work pass (subject to restrictions).
- One free pizza lunch ticket.
- Being a guest reader for one of the primary grades during the school year.
- An entry ticket into the Blue & Gold Club Members Only GRAND PRIZE DRAWING at the PMA Scholastic Book Fair. The winner of the BLUE & GOLD GRAND PRIZE DRAWING will receive $25.00 in FREE MERCHANDISE.

THE MAROON & GRAY READING CLUB

To become a member of the Maroon & Gray Club, a student must read four (4) additional books from their grade's required summer reading list, except for students in Grade 4, who must read two (2) additional books.

Membership privileges include:

- A certificate of participation as a Maroon & Gray Club member in the summer reading program.
- Their name featured on a special Maroon & Gray Club membership roster in the library.
- A free bookmark, pencil, and eraser from the PMA school store.
- A coupon for one (1) dress down day (subject to restrictions).
